

Sixth Form Bulletin for Monday 21st June 2010 (Week A)

EXAMS ARE STILL TAKING PLACE THIS WEEK; assemblies will happen if the Hall is not needed!

Assembly: Tuesday 22nd June: Mr. Powell

Please arrive in the Hall promptly for an 8.30am register

Thursday 24th June, 2.15pm: Mrs. Banks

Summer Schools

A number of students are out at Summer Schools this week, I would appreciate a brief evaluation of it's usefulness on your return. Please see Mrs. Gulliford for a small form to complete.

Reminders from Assembly last week:

- ☺ Please sign up to help with Y7 / Y10 Induction (whiteboard in entrance hall)
- ☺ Remember that you must be in school for registration (as usual) and a tutor session in p1 on Tuesday 29th June (Sixth Form Induction)
- ☺ There will be a barbecue at the back of the Sixth Form House on Wednesday 30th June, cost £2.20 (provided by the new Chef)
- ☺ Please sign up for Sports Day (9th July) on whiteboard in entrance hall. Remember, you will all go to Sports Day so you might as well do something useful!
- ☺ Letters and sign up sheets for 'Ultimate Qs and Alternative As'; 'Choosing Health' and the Y12 visit to London will be appearing soon.

An overdue 'Congratulations!'

- To Natalie Hughes who will be Head Student 2010/11
- To Steven Toogood who will be the 'male face' of Hayesfield Sixth Form 2010/11
- To our new Senior Prefects who were appointed before study leave and are now taking up their posts.

The Heads of House are now in the process of selecting Deputy Heads of House in time for the official launch on Sports Day.

Several students have approached me this week about the Senior Prefect Team, if any more of you would like to be considered, please let me know as soon as possible.

Holidays in term time

Just to remind you that holidays are not authorised in the Sixth Form, but if you insist on going then you must let Mrs. Gulliford and all your teachers know well in advance. It is up to you to make up all work missed.
